

Fixed expenses incurred on the purchase of capital items that are required by the health technology.

Note 1: Capital items include medical equipment, buildings and land.

Note 2: Capital items usually depreciate over time and the costs are annualised over the useful life of the item.