

A record in a bibliographic database describing documents such as articles, books and reports.

Note: The description includes the name(s) of the author(s), the title, the source, the year of publication and, sometimes, the keywords and abstract.