

A ranking of study designs based primarily on their internal validity.

Note 1: This method is used to determine the weight that should be given to a study.

Note 2: Various hierarchies of evidence are used in health technology assessment