

The non-quantifiable cost of pain and suffering caused by a disease, health problem or intervention.

Note: Drummond and his collaborators do not support the use of this concept.