

Professional negligence or the improper carrying out of professional activities that fails to meet the standards of care and that may result in harm to the patient.