

A test performance characteristic, defined as the proportion of persons with a positive result in a diagnostic test who have the disease; it is calculated as follows: true positives ÷ (true positives + false positives).

Note: The PPV varies with the prevalence of the disease in the population of interest.

Related concept: negative predictive value