

The degree to which health care increases the probability of achieving the desired health outcomes and meets the standards of care.

(Related concepts: quality assessment and quality assurance)