

Acronym: RWE

Evidence derived from the analysis of real world data.

Note 1: Real world data are primarily analysed through observational study designs. This real world evidence is characterized by the actual use of the technology in practice and by findings that are generalizable to the target population for the technology.