

Health Technology Assessment International - an international society focussed on health technology assessment that brings together academic institutions, health care institutions, industry, business, the voluntary sector and the public sector.