

A research design where a group of subjects is observed before and after an intervention or exposure to a given factor.

Syn.: pre-test/post-test study