

All non-medical expenses associated with the delivery of health care and health services.

Note: For example, childcare expenses and expenses connected with travel to receive care.

Note: Drummond and his collaborators do not support the use of this concept.