

The additional cost required to produce an additional unit of benefit.

Note: For example, the additional cost required to produce an additional unit of health outcome.