

Data classified into two or more categories where there is a natural order to the categories, such as non-smokers, ex-smokers, light smokers and heavy smokers.

Syn.: ordered categorical data