

The measurement and monitoring activities for determining how well health care is delivered with reference to the applicable standards or acceptable bounds of care.

(Related concepts: quality assurance and quality of care.)