

A characteristic of diagnostic test efficacy that describes the effect of a diagnostic test on treatment choices.